

CHICKEN RHYTHM GAME

Reinforce Rhythm Recognition

Players:

2+ Players

Materials:

Rhythm Cards, Rubber Chicken(optional)

Game Objective:

Musical Objective: Reinforce Rhythm Recognition

Game Objective: Have the most cards in your hand at the end of the game.

Game Assembly:

Print rhythm cards and chicken cards on card stock and laminate if desired.

Students sit across from each other with the rhythm cards in the middle facing down.

Gameplay:

1) To begin, player one draws the top card from the stack and they must clap the rhythm. If player one plays correctly, he/she will keep the card. If they clap incorrectly, they must put the card in the discard pile.

2) After player one completes his/her turn, player two will then pick up the next card and clap the rhythm. If they clap incorrectly, they must put the card in the discard pile.

3) If someone draws the CHICKEN! card, they must discard all of their cards and start back from zero!

*If you have a rubber chicken, the player has the option of squeaking the chicken.

To end the game:

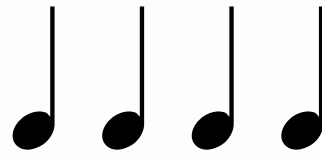

Teachers can pick an amount of time the game is played, designate a number of rounds to be played, or end the game when all cards have been played.

The winner is the player with the most cards left in his/her hand.
